

The Aeroplane in Warfare--Airmen With Troops Down on the Border

AEROPLANE IN FLIGHT WITH LIEUTENANT FAULOIS.

AEROPLANE IN FLIGHT WITH LIEUTENANT FAULOIS AT SAN ANTONIO.

SENDING MESSAGES TO THE AVIATORS BY THE HELIOGRAPH MACHINE.

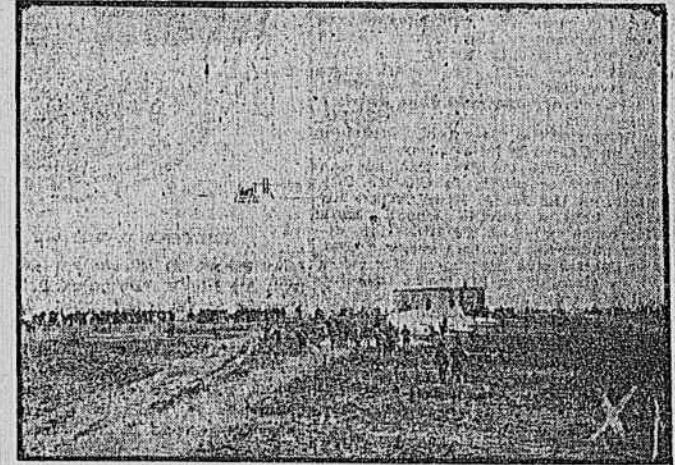

General William H. Carter and staff, watching troops in review.

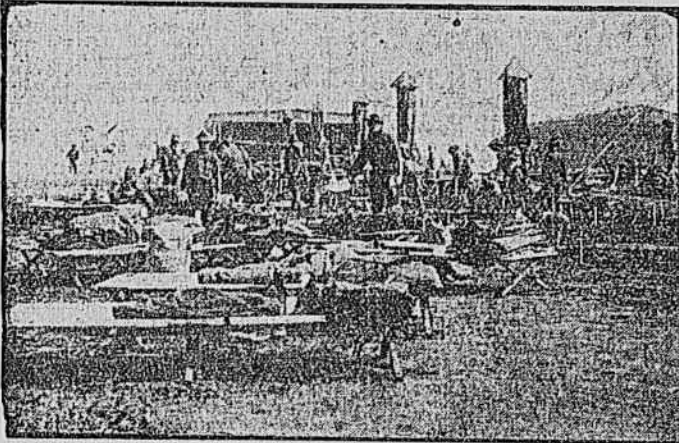

Lieutenant Faulois and Philip Parmelee talking before flight.

DOING THE FAMILY WASH.

AEROPLANE IN FLIGHT WITH LIEUTENANT FAULOIS.

TWENTY-EIGHTH INFANTRY AT SAN ANTONIO.

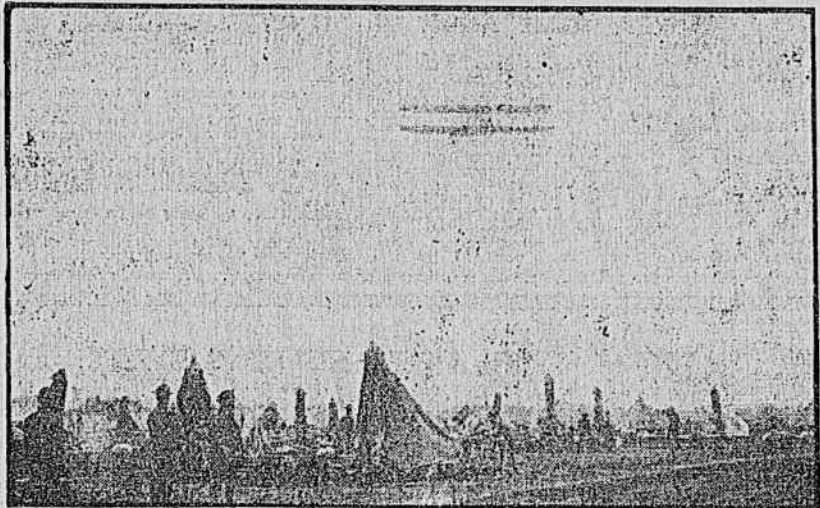

Signal Corps wigwagging to Aeronauts.

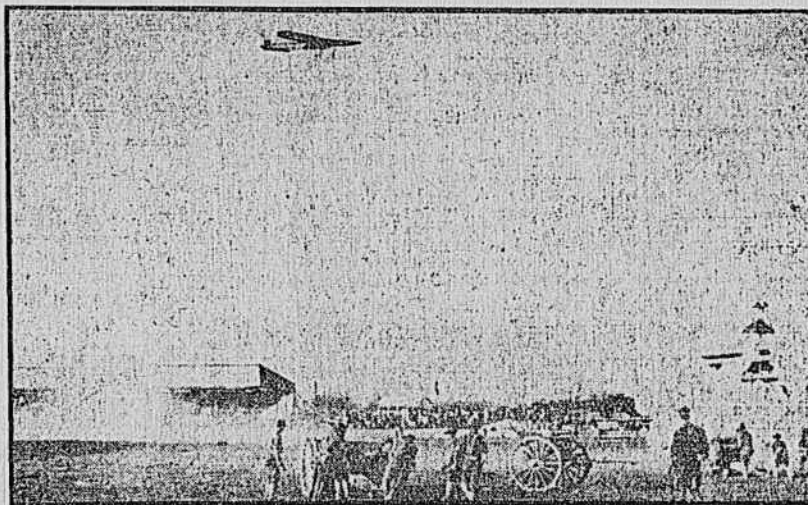

MOUNTAIN ARTILLERY PASSING IN REVIEW.

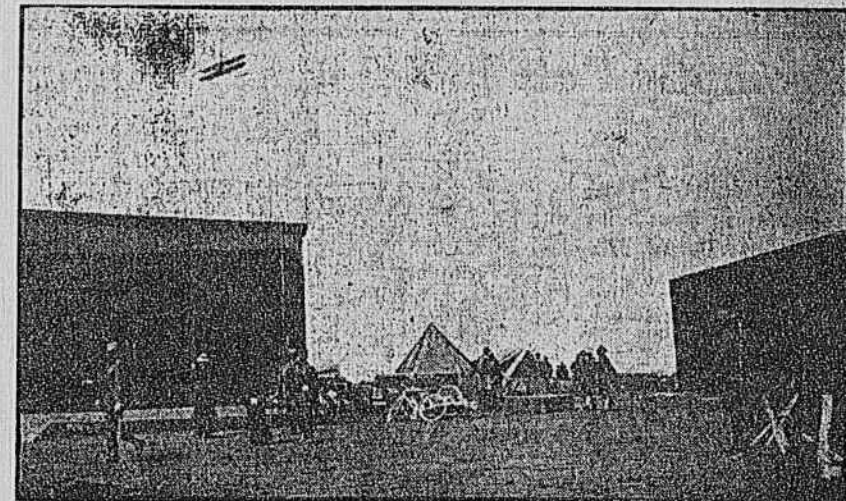

MEMBERS OF THE FOURTH CAVALRY AT MESS.

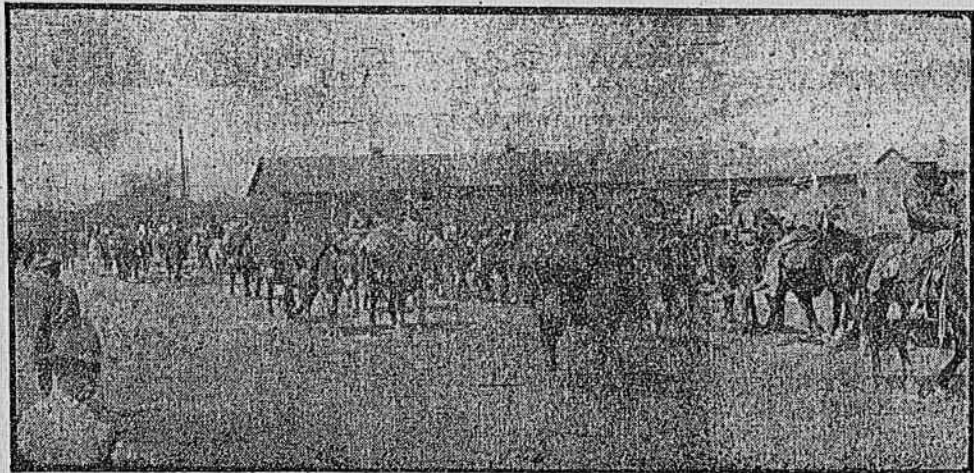

LIEUTENANT FAULOIS AND PARMELEE AT SAN ANTONIO.

Artillery firing on Rene Simon, of the Moisant Aviators. Simon later drove the soldiers from their guns by dropping heavy dummy bombs.

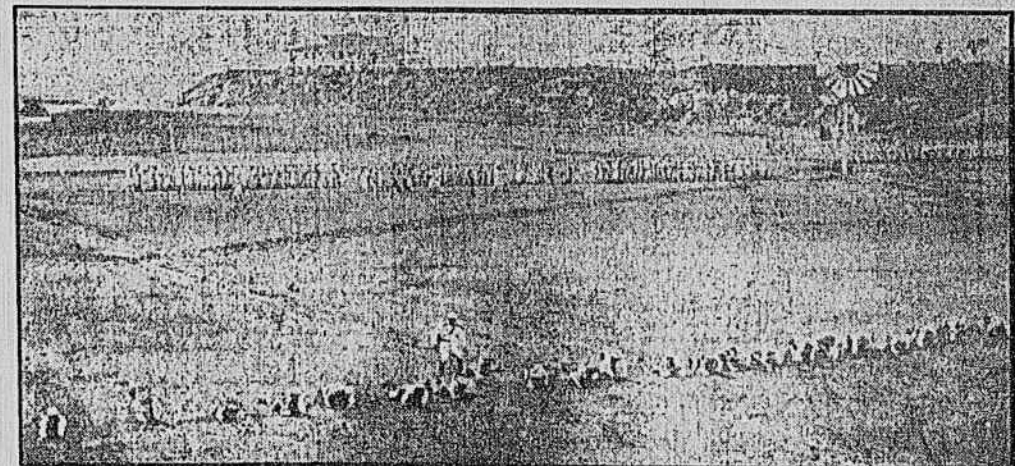

AEROPLANE IN FLIGHT.

MULES ON WAY TO CAMP WITH FEED.

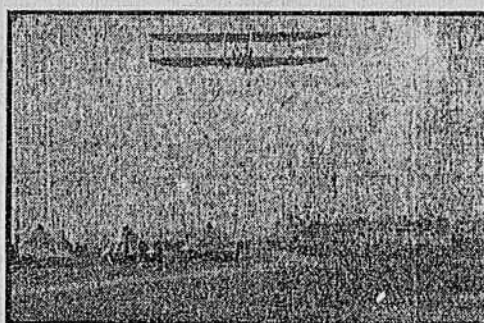

READING A LETTER FROM HOME.

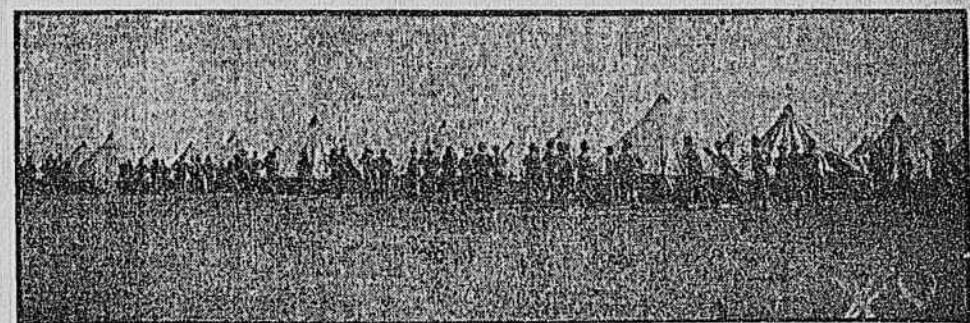

AMERICAN MARINES IN DRILL AT GUANTANAMO BAY.

VIEW OF CAMP AT SAN ANTONIO.

AEROPLANE IN FLIGHT WITH LIEUTENANT FAULOIS.

AEROPLANE IN FLIGHT WITH LIEUTENANT FAULOIS AT SAN ANTONIO.
(Pictures Copyrighted by American Press Association.)